Adam Crawford: Seeking election for Executive Board and Union Delegate!

I have been a member of IATSE 873 since the beginning of 2015 and I permitted before that giving me 10 years of film experience working on set as well as off set. Prior to joining the IATSE family I had a wonderful career as an owner operator running long hull for about 18 years and before that I was in human resources with a degree in human resources management.

I believe my diverse career experiences will bring a fresh view to our unique issues.

Platform

- To use my voice to say what is truthful and necessary
- To listen to you and give guidance and support
- To ensure that the best interests of the local are always upheld.
- Be there to support my Kin, Sister's and Brother's to bring positive change for IATSE 873.
- To be a strong advocate for a fair contract for IATSE 873
- To continue pushing forward with our training which can only make us stronger.

I have fought as a committee member and now I look forward to being your voice and fighting for us as an Executive Board Member and as a Delegate.

In Solidarity Brother Adam Crawford.
